MSW Certificates

Students can earn a certificate to demonstrate competency in a particular field.

Affordable Housing and Mixed-Income Community Management

Students develop the interpersonal and property management skills necessary to excel in the dynamic and growing field of mixed-income community management.

Violence and Injury Prevention

Students learn to understand and impact the interrelated risk and protective factors of violence. There are four tracks available:

- Adolescents to Young Adults
- American Indian/Alaska Native
- Women
- Young Families/Children

Only Buder Scholars and students enrolled in the MSW/MPH dual degree may choose to pursue the Violence and Injury Prevention certificate.

Other MSW students with an interest in violence and injury prevention are encouraged to pursue the Violence and Injury Prevention Concentration (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/msw/concentrations).