Summer School

The Summer School at Washington University offers both College of Arts & Sciences and University College courses to meet the goals and interests of a variety of student populations, from the pre-college learner to the nontraditional adult. Administered primarily by University College, the Summer School runs day and evening courses, workshops and institutes for current and visiting students. Summer School courses are scheduled over five separate sessions, and many are offered in flexible hybrid or online formats.

Master of Science in Biology for Science Teachers

This two-year program is designed to fit the schedules of working teachers. It consists of two summer institutes, three weeks each, in residence at Washington University. The remaining course work during the academic years is completed online. For more information, visit our MS in Biology for Science Teachers webpage (https://ucollege.wustl.edu/programs/graduate/masters-biology-science-teachers) or call 314-935-8974.

International Summer Study

Undergraduate university students from around the world join us each year for International Summer Study. Current undergraduate students can participate in our five-week program, during which they will take two courses, attend social and cultural events, and meet with university deans and directors. For more information, visit our International Summer Study webpage (http://summerschool.wustl.edu/international) or call 314-935-4695.

Summer Writers Institute

The Summer Writers Institute brings together writers of all levels from St. Louis and beyond. The two-week program features workshops in various genres as well as panels, readings, craft talks, individual conferences with instructors, and a final open mic. Small class sizes encourage dynamic discussions and allow students to hone their craft and explore new approaches. Workshops are led by professional published writers who are experts in their fields and accomplished in providing constructive critique. For more information, visit our Summer Writers Institute webpage (http://summerschool.wustl.edu/swi) or call 314-935-4695.

WUSTL-ALLEX Intensive Chinese and Japanese Language Institutes

Students jump-start Chinese and Japanese language proficiency in this seven-week, 4-unit program. Small classes are taught by master professors who represent many of the country’s preeminent Asian language programs as well as native speakers from China, Taiwan and Japan. With two teachers for every language student, the program features frequent and meaningful cultural exchanges in the target language and teaches students to speak and act in a culturally appropriate way. For more information, visit our Intensive Chinese & Japanese Institutes webpage (https://summerschool.wustl.edu/intensive-chinese-japanese-institute) or call 314-935-4695.

WUSTL-ALLEX Chinese and Japanese Teacher Training Institute

Post-baccalaureate students from China, Japan and Taiwan study Chinese and Japanese pedagogy in this seven-week, 4.5-unit program. After learning from master professors, students go on to colleges and universities across the country to launch or enhance Chinese and Japanese language programs. For more information, visit our Intensive Chinese & Japanese Institutes webpage (https://summerschool.wustl.edu/intensive-chinese-japanese-institute) or call 314-935-4695.
