LLM in Taxation (Online)

With a history of providing exceptional legal education, Washington University School of Law offers an online Master of Laws (LLM) in Taxation designed for lawyers and law school graduates who want to specialize in tax law.

Students in the program will gain a comprehensive understanding of federal, state and local tax law and will graduate prepared to assist individuals and organizations in all major areas of tax, such as estate planning, employee benefits and corporate taxation.

The program can be completed entirely online in as little as one year.

Degree Requirements

LLM in Taxation (Online)

Program Requirements

- 24 total credits
- Three required courses
- 15 credits of electives
- One year to complete

Courses

Students will complete three required courses and then choose from a variety of electives to meet their individual career goals. Visit the School of Law’s course catalog for online programs (https://onlinelaw.wustl.edu/academics/course-catalog) for current course descriptions.

Required Courses

- Federal Income Taxation
- Corporate Taxation
- Partnership Taxation

Electives

- State and Local Taxation
- Federal Tax Procedure
- Federal Estate and Gift Taxation
- International Taxation
- Tax-Exempt Organizations
- Accounting for Tax Attorneys
- Tax Research Writing
- Externship
- Supervised Research