

Summer Programs

The School of Continuing & Professional Studies offers summer courses and programs that meet the goals and interests of a variety of populations, including current and visiting students. Summer courses are scheduled over five separate sessions, and many are offered in flexible hybrid or online formats.

Summer Writers Institute

The Summer Writers Institute brings together writers of all levels from St. Louis and beyond. The program features workshops in various genres as well as panels, readings, craft talks, individual conferences with instructors, and a final open mic. Small class sizes encourage dynamic discussions and allow students to hone their craft and explore new approaches. Workshops are led by professional published writers who are experts in their fields and accomplished in providing constructive critique. For more information, visit our Summer Writers Institute webpage (<https://summerwriters.wustl.edu/>).

Additional Information

For more information about the summer programs described above, please visit the School of Continuing & Professional Studies website. (<https://caps.wustl.edu/>)