MPH Dual and Joint Degrees

The Brown School offers structured joint- and dual-degree programs, giving students the opportunity to earn a Master of Public Health degree in combination with one of the following degrees from the top-ranked schools of Washington University:

- Public Health and Social Work (MPH/MSW) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-msw/)
- Public Health and Medicine (MPH/MD) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-md/)
- Public Health and Business (MPH/MBA) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-mba/)
- Public Health and Occupational Therapy (MPH/MSOT) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-msot/)
- Public Health and Anthropology (MPH/PhD in Anthropology) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-phd-anthro/)
- Public Health and Law (MPH/JD) (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/brownschool/mph-jd/)

Note: To enter a joint-degree program, students must apply to each school separately and be admitted to both. Applicants interested in the MPH/MSW dual degree must apply to the Brown School's public health (https://brownschool.wustl.edu/academics/master-of-public-health/MPH-application-instructions/pages/default.aspx) and social work (https://brownschool.wustl.edu/academics/master-of-social-work/MSW-application-information/pages/default.aspx) programs separately.

For more information about any of these programs, contact Brown School Admissions (https://brownschool.wustl.edu/pages/contact-us.aspx).
