

Teaching and Learning

Contact: Pat Matthews
Phone: 314-935-6754
Email: patmatthews@wustl.edu
Website: <https://ucollege.wustl.edu/programs/graduate/masters-teaching-learning>

Degree Requirements

Master of Arts in Teaching and Learning

Students are required to complete the first-year residency with STLTR to earn their teacher certification. They are then required to complete an additional 21 units at Washington University in St. Louis for the master's degree.

Required Courses (15 units)

- Educ 4301 The American School (3 units)
- One of the following:
 - Educ 5125 & Educ 5130: Advanced Teaching Methods: Elementary (3 units)
 - Educ 5126 & Educ 5131: Advanced Teaching Methods: Secondary English/Language Arts (3 units)
 - Educ 5127 & Educ 5132: Advanced Teaching Methods: Secondary Mathematics (3 units)
 - Educ 5128 & Educ 5133: Advanced Teaching Methods: Secondary Science (3 units)
- Educ 5129: Advanced Teaching Methods: Project Based Learning and Assessment (3 units)
- Educ 5140: MATL Capstone Seminar I (3 units)
- Educ 5141: MATL Capstone Seminar II (3 units)

Elective Courses (6 units)

Students tailor their degree by taking additional courses in education or in subject-specific areas such as English, math or biology.