* A score of 4 or 5 on the AP Art History exam may be substituted for Art-Arch 113. To substitute a 4 or 5 on the AP Art History exam, a student must earn at least a B in a related upper-division departmental course.

Elective courses:

Four courses at the 300 level or above must be chosen from at least two of the following areas:

- Ancient Mediterranean and Medieval Art and Archaeology
- European Renaissance and Baroque Art
- European and American Modern and Contemporary Art
- Non-Western Art and Archaeology (e.g., Asian, Islamic, Oceanic or African)
- Architecture

Each of these upper-level courses must be taken for a letter grade.

Additional Information

One L01 (Art History and Archaeology) course at the 200 level counts toward the minor. Alternatively, students in Arts & Sciences, the Olin School of Business, and the McKelvey School of Engineering may substitute one studio course of 3 or more credits taken at any level in the Sam Fox School (or at another institution, with prior permission) for a 300-level course. Other courses in the colleges of architecture or art do not count for the minor. Students should have the proper prerequisites before enrolling in 300- or 400-level courses. Courses in other Arts & Sciences departments do not count toward the minor unless they are cross-listed as L01 (Art History and Archaeology) courses at the 300 level or above. At least two of the 300-level courses must be completed in residence at Washington University. Space in 400-level seminars is limited, and majors will be given priority over minors, even from wait lists. Internship credit may not be applied to the minor, but it does count toward graduation.
