Majors

Students seeking a major concentration in Medieval or Renaissance Studies are advised to pursue it under the aegis of either the Interdisciplinary Project in the Humanities (http://bulletin.wustl.edu/undergrad/artscl/interdisciplinaryprojectinthehumanities/) or one of the other departments or programs in the humanities. They should achieve foreign language competency in French, Spanish, German, Italian, Latin, Arabic or Greek, and they are strongly urged to pursue their studies across several departments and programs.
