

Spanish Minor

Program Requirements

- Total units required: 18

The Spanish minor requires the completion of 18 units, 12 of which must be taken in residence. Study at Washington University's own programs in Spain or Chile is considered "in residence." Students must complete courses with a grade of B- or better and maintain a B average or better overall in Spanish. Courses taken on a Pass/Fail basis do not count toward the Spanish minor.

Required Courses

Cultures and Communications in the Spanish-Speaking World (6 units)

- Span 302 Cultures and Communication in the Spanish-Speaking World (Heritage speakers of Spanish must be certified by the director of undergraduate studies and enroll in Span 3021 Language and Culture for Heritage Speakers of Spanish.)
- Span 303 Cultures and Communication in the Spanish-Speaking World II

Spanish 303 is a prerequisite or corequisite for all 300-level literature and culture courses in Spanish.

Three "Debating Cultures" and/or "Researching Cultures" Courses (9 units)

One or two "Debating Cultures" courses (3-6 units):
