please contact our recruitment team to discuss your options for face-to-face program enrollment. F-1 and J-1 students should not enroll in online courses or programs without first consulting the university's Office for International Students and Scholars (OISS).

Degree Requirements

All School of Continuing & Professional Studies undergraduate students must satisfy the same general-education requirements.

Students in BSIS programs must complete a certificate, tailoring their degree to their educational and professional goals. Students in BSIS programs must also complete a Community Engagement course. A designated course in the Humanities program will fulfill this requirement.

Required courses: 27 units plus a 3-unit capstone (30 units)

Students choose 27 units from Humanities courses, including these disciplines:

- African and African-American Studies
- Art History and Archaeology
- Classics
- English Composition & Creative Writing*
- English Literature
- French
- History
- Italian
- Korean
- Philosophy
- Spanish

* Courses taken in this area must be at the 300 level or above.

Required capstone: 3 units

Students must also complete a 3-unit capstone essay in which they reflect on the integration of a topic across fields within the chosen concentration.

Note: At least 15 units in the field of study must be in upper-level (300-level and higher) courses.

This program is offered either mostly or fully online. Students entering the U.S. on an F-1 or J-1 Visa must enroll in a program full time. F-1 students are only permitted to enroll in one online course per semester and J-1 students may only enroll in non-credit online courses that do not count toward their degree program. The School of Continuing & Professional Studies (CAPS) cannot guarantee face-to-face enrollment options each semester of full time enrollment, therefore cannot issue an I-20 or DS 2019 to F-1 and J-1 students for this program. If you are an F-1 or J-1 student and wish to enroll in a CAPS program while here on a Visa,
