

Leadership and Organizational Development

The Certificate in Leadership and Organizational Development (15 units) focuses on teaching students to develop and apply effective, adaptive, and inclusive leadership skills for successful organizational development. Students in the program learn principles in group behavior, management, and team-building as well as how to successfully employ those principles in the workplace.

The program is designed to support people who have attended college and are looking to grow in their current position or transition into a leadership role.
