

Undergraduate Studies

The Undergraduate Studies academic unit brings together university-wide programs that provide hallmark initiatives that span the undergraduate experience and align with the university's strategic initiatives. Undergraduate Studies promotes interdisciplinarity, collaboration, and creativity.

Undergraduate Studies is sponsored by the Office of the Provost.

Current Programs/ Courses Within Undergraduate Studies

- Beyond Boundaries Program: The Beyond Boundaries Program is a two- or four-year program that allows students to be a part of an ecosystem of interdisciplinary scholars intent on problem solving through cross-discipline collaboration.
- Leadership Development: Purpose, Character, & Capability (3 credits): The mission of Washington University in St. Louis is, in part, "to act in the service of truth through the formation of leaders." This course introduces students to a view of leadership that transcends a formal role or position and applies across different arenas of life (e.g., community, business, politics, science, arts). Amidst pluralism, the motivation, ability, and understanding of how to provide leadership effectively will enable students to advance new ideas, collaborate effectively with others, and have a positive impact on society.
